

201
This Day is Published, Price ONE SHILLING,

299 No. VIII.

(Continued Monthly), of

THE

POLITICAL STATE

OF

E U R O P E,

FOR THE YEAR M,DCC,XCII.

CONTAINING

AN AUTHENTIC AND IMPARTIAL STATEMENT

OF

EVERY MILITARY OPERATION

OF THE PRESENT BELLIGERENT POWERS,

AND

A CORRECT COPY OF EVERY STATE PAPER,
DECLARATION, MANIFESTO, &c.

ALSO

A CORRECT TRANSLATION

OF THE

DEBATES AND PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY AND CONVENTION OF FRANCE.

✎ The Public will be pleased to observe, that this is the only Periodical Publication that is entirely devoted to these interesting objects. And that the Public may judge of the utility of this Work, we have subjoined a short Abstract of the Contents of the Seven former Numbers.

* * * On account of the great increase of interesting events, and of important State Papers, in the present crisis of affairs, Number IX. will be published on Thursday the 15th of November: And Number X, which will complete the First Volume, and will contain a copious Index, will be published on Saturday the 1st of December.

††† Gentlemen, Merchants, and others, who are in the habit of sending New Books to their Friends and Correspondents in the Country, or Abroad, will find this Work to contain a more full and accurate Statement of the Affairs of Europe, at this interesting moment, than any other Publication whatever.

L O N D O N :

Printed for J. S. JORDAN, No. 166, Fleet Street :

And Sold by all other Booksellers in Town and Country; of whom complete Sets may be had.

NUMBER I.

Letter from the French King to the National Assembly.
Abolition of the Feudal System in Alsace and Lorrain.
French King's letter to the Emperor.
French manifesto to foreign courts.
Letter from the Emigrants to the King.
Declaration of the Elector of Treves.
The Emperor's answer to the French King.
Manifesto of the Emperor against France.
Letter from the Princes to the Emperor.
Resolutions concerning Austria.
Memorial delivered by the Imperial Minister at Paris to the French court.
Death of the Emperor.
Historical observations on the causes of the war.
Answer of the King of Hungary to the French requisitions.
Armies formed by France.
Letter from the French Ambassador at Vienna.
— from the French Minister at Paris to the French Minister at Vienna.
— from the King of France to the King of Hungary.
— from the French Minister at Paris to the French Minister at Vienna.
— from the French Minister at Vienna to the French Minister at Paris.

King's speech to the National Assembly.
Advice given to the French King.
French declaration of war against the King of Hungary.
State of the French army.
Proclamation of the government of Brussels, in answer to the declaration of war by France.
Account of the first motions of the French armies.
Notice given by the French Minister at War to the National Assembly of the conduct of M. Dillon near Tournay.
Letters from M. de Biron, M. Rochambeau, &c. on the conduct of the French troops at Mons and Tournay.
State of the neutral powers.
Narrative of M. Dillon's death, published by his relations.
Flemish accounts of the action near Tournay and Mons.
Account of the same from the London Gazette.
Address of M. de la Fayette to his army.
Petition of M. Arthur Dillon to the National Assembly.
M. Servan's address to the National Assembly.
Address from the Representatives of the French people to the armed citizens.

NUMBER II.

Extraordinary manifesto of the Belgic and Liegeois people united.
Address to the people of the Belgic countries and of Liege.

ENGLAND.

A list of the Boroughs in England which are private property, with the names of the Proprietors and number of Voters in each.
A list of the Boroughs which are under particular influence, with the names of those persons who hold that influence, and number of Voters in each.
A list of those Boroughs in which the Electors dispose of their franchises to the highest bidder.
A list of such Boroughs, &c. as are not entirely, but in a considerable degree, under influence; where money elects one Member and influence the other.
A list of those Boroughs, &c. which are reputed to be independent.
Confidential letter from the French King to the King of England.

Memoir of the French Ambassador to Lord Grenville.
Proclamation by the British Ministry.
Second Proclamation.
Second note from the French Ambassador.

POLAND.

State of affairs in Poland.
Proceedings of the Polish Diet.
Speech of Chojecki.
Expedition de Defence.
Decree of the Polish Diet in case of war.
Declaration of the Russian Ambassador delivered to the Diet at Warsaw.
Remarks on the same.
Speech of the King of Poland in the Diet.
Address of the King of Poland to the army.
Letter from the King to the nation.
Answer of the Republic of Poland to the Declaration of Russia.
Note presented by the Prussian Minister to the States-General.

NUMBER III.

301

Declaration of the Kings of Prussia and Hungary, delivered at Ratibon
Conference between Lord Auckland and the Grand Pensioner of Holland
Answer of Lord Grenville to the French Ambassador

FRANCE.

Action of Bavai
Foreign Ministers quit Paris
French King's Letter to the Directory of Paris
French King's Letter to the Municipality of Paris
Remarks on the French King's Letter by the Mayor of Paris
Action at Florennes
Decree against Privateering
Address of Mr. W. Priestley to the National Assembly
Speech of M. François on that subject
Letter from M. La Fayette to the King
Debates in the Jacobin Club
Letters from the Ex-Ministers
Letter from M. Rolland to the King
Letter from M. Dumourier to the King
Titles of Peers all burned
Accounts of the riots at Paris
Proclamations concerning the riots
Letters from M. Luckner on taking Menip, Courtray, &c.

Address from the War Minister
Address from M. Petion
State of the Armies of France
First proposal of the decree on national danger
Decree for the Corps de reserve
Letter from M. Petion to the Citizens
Abandonment of Courtray, &c.
Defensive war proposed
Decree that the country is in danger
Letter from the French King on the Federation
French King's Notification to all the European Powers

ENGLAND.

List of the English Counties, with the names of the Peers who have influence in each
A list of the Cinque Ports, the number of Electors, species of influence, and names of the Proprietors
A list of the Counties and Towns in Wales, with the number of Electors, and names of the Proprietors
A list of the same in Scotland
French Ambassador's Note to Lord Grenville
Lord Grenville's answer

AFFAIRS OF FRANCE, &c.

Arrival of the Wallachians
Declaration of the King of Prussia

NUMBER IV.

A FULL, ACCURATE, AND PARTICULAR ACCOUNT OF EVERY CIRCUMSTANCE CONCERNING THE DETHRONEMENT OF THE FRENCH KING, AND OF ALL THE PROCEEDINGS RELATIVE THERETO

Bishop of Lyons's proposal for an union of parties in the National Assembly
M. Petion, Mayor of Paris, suspended
Three foreign armies on the frontiers
All the French Ministers resign
The country declared to be in danger
Address of the National Assembly to the Army

French

M. Petion restored, M. Luckner and M. de la Fayette come to Paris
List of persons accused of high treason
Conduct of La Fayette and Luckner
King's proclamation on the danger of the country
Declaration of the Court of Vienna against France
Declaration of the King of Prussia against France
Declaration of the Duke of Brunswick to the Inhabitants of France
Additional declaration of the Duke of Brunswick

Commentary on the declaration of the Duke of Brunswick
Letter from the French King to the National Assembly on the declaration of the Duke of Brunswick
M. Petion's speech to the National Assembly, demanding the deposition of the King
King of France's complaint of England, and his request to fit out a fleet, rejected
Observations on the same
The mediation of England rejected
Decree to remove the Swifs
The King attempts to escape
Increase of the Armies
M. de la Fayette acquitted

OPERATIONS OF THE ARMIES.

Itinerary of Fayette
Affair at Orchies
Bavay
Camps at Maulde and Famars
Skirmishes between the French and Austrians
Dillon's proclamation
Cause and explanation of M. Luckner's evacuation of the Netherlands, and his orders to act on the defensive
Design and policy of that measure to deceive the French
Decree on desertion

French Minister at Mentz ordered to depart
Meeting of the Emperor and King of Prussia, and plan of operations explained

The Prussians enter France
Exposition of the motives of the National Assembly in calling a National Convention

NUMBER V.

Manifesto of the King of Prussia and the Emperor against the French Revolution Declaration of the French Princes to the people of France
A statement of the political situation of the different Powers of Europe, relative to France
Letter of Mr. Secretary Dundas for the re-cal of Lord Gower, and the French Minister's reply

A subsequent state of the relative situation of France with respect to Foreign Powers
Anecdote current at Coblenz
Hessians march against France
A faithful detail of the debates and proceedings of the National Assembly, and copies of all papers laid before them
Lord Gower returns to England
Defection of M. de la Fayette
Russia declares against France

NUMBER VI.

Letter from Cherbourg to the Whigs in England
Nonjuring Priests
M. Petion's vindication of himself
A full account of the tumults of Paris, and of the massacres of the prisoners
Observations on the same
Skirmishes between the Austrians and
French
M. Roland's letter to the National Assembly — His letter to the inhabitants of the country
The National Assembly abjure Monarchy
Capitulation of Verdun and death of the Governor
Siege of Thionville and other particulars Speech of Monsieur to the Emigrants in his train
Address to Prussian and Austrian Soldiers Massacre of the prisoners at Versailles, with observations
Further particulars of the proceedings on the tenth of August Treacheries in Paris previous to the tenth of August

Detail of the combined armies
Detail of the French armies
Address of the Minister at War
Proclamation of General Dumourier Refractory Priests. Decrees concerning them. They come to England. Subscriptions for them opened. Affair of Dr. Maxwell's intended Subscription
Election of the National Convention
Mr. PAINE elected. His Letter to Mr. Sec.
Dundas. Letter from Calais on the same
Subject, and M. Audibert's Letter
Conduct of the Elector of Hanover and other Germans
Skirmishes, Siege of Thionville, &c.
War with the Empire
War with Sardinia
Plots at Paris
State of France and other Powers.

NUMBER VII.

MR. PAINE'S ADDRESS TO THE
PEOPLE OF FRANCE
Report of the French ministers concerning the order given for invading Savoy
Robbery of the Jewel Office Letter of M. Dumourier on the flight of his troops
Austrians driven from Orchic. Commons of Paris charged with the care of the prisons
Speech of M. Vergniaux on the state of affairs
Skirmishes and junction of the French armies
Note of the Imperial and Neapolitan ministers to Lord Grenville
Lord Grenville's answer
Siege of Thionville
Prussian and Austrian accounts of skirmishes
Hanoverians ordered to march
Details of the armies
Honourable mention of Thionville

Declaration of the National Assembly to foreign Powers. Written by M. Brissot
Reflections on the English and French Revolutions. By M. Condorcet
Close of the National Assembly
Observations on the same
Meeting of the National Convention
Abolition of Royalty
Letter to the Administrative Bodies
Letter from General Kellerman on his action with the Prussians
Dumourier's letter on the same
Report given in to the National Convention, by the Minister
Distress of the Prussian army
Success in Savoy
Substance of the Correspondence between Generals D'Arenburg and Biron and the Swiss Cantons
Observations on the dispositions of the several European Powers with respect to France

